Carroll County District Library Summer Reading Adult Programs

Maintaining House Plants - Do you love house plants but seem to kill everyone you get? Come to this program presented by the library's own plant care giver, Heather Weyand. Tuesday, July 9 @ 3:30. Registration requested. There is no cost for this program.

Using an Instant Pot - Wednesday, July 10 @ 5:30; Corinna Gromley, OSU Extension Office Educator, will present a class on the use of an Instant Pot. This versatile appliance could change the way you cook! Registration requested. Cost is free.

Junk Journal Class 3 - Friday, July 12 @ 5:30; the focus of this class is on making the cover for a junk journal. This includes choosing the type of material for the cover and adding any decorations to the cover. Registration requested. Cost is free.

Button bracelet - Tuesday, July 16 @ 4:30; make a bracelet for yourself or to give as a gift. Registration requested. Cost is free.

Plastic bag flower painting - Friday, July 19 @ 4:00; attendees will paint a group of flowers on a long rectangular piece of thin wood. The flowers are painted using the bottom of an air filled plastic bag similar to the vegetable bags at the grocery store. Registration requested. Cost is free.

DIY Butterfly Feeder - Monday, July 22 @ 5:30; make a butterfly feeder from a pint sized mason jar. Registration requested. Cost is free.

Ohio Tea Co. - Tuesday, July 23 @ 5:30; Kurt Gibbons, co-owner of the Ohio Tea Co. located in Canton, will be presenting a class on tea. Also tea products will be available for purchasing that evening. Tea and refreshments will be served. Feel free to bring your own tea cup! You won't want to miss this! Registration requested. No cost.

Junk Journal Class 4 - Friday, July 26 @ 5:30; the focus of this class will be sewing in the signatures (pages) to the cover. The sewing is done by hand! Once you have completed this step, the real fun begins.
